According to the death registration Martin Seley died November 30th, 1894 in Rawden Twp. At the time he was living with his daughter Charlotte and son-in-law in Stirling as confirmed in the nearest census. No documentation has come to light to indicate where he is buried nor is his name in cemeteries in Hastings County. Martin's wife Irena is buried in Ridge Road Pioneer

Cemetery and there is a tombstone containing her name that references her as Marten's wife. This cemetery contains other Seeley/Seely□s and is located in a corner of what used to be Martin□s farm. There is a foot stone inscribed with the initials "M S" in the cemetery. The stone is situated with other pieces of stone that have been grouped together in a corner of the cemetery hence the exact location of the individual with these initials is unknown and none of the tombstones have names beginning with the letters M and S. These facts lead to a supposition that Martin may be buried in Ridge Road Cemetery. Perhaps the intent was to erect a tombstone later but one was not commissioned due to cost or for other reasons. Certainly the seven off-spring where alive at the time of Martin□s death which begs the question.

The Seely family can be found in the Rawdon Assessment Roll of 1842 with Martin Seely owning 200 acres located at Concession 1 Lot 7. In the following years, a cemetery and a sawmill were established on his land. Martin was a land wheeler and dealer with abstract land documents showing numerous transactions for this Lot and Lot 6 of Concession 2. He readily sold for a □family price□, sections, and small acreages to his children. In 1866, he suffered a devastating fire to his sawmill with damages costing $1800, of which only $600 was covered by insurance. Martin lost one small son at the tender age of 5 months in 1868 and his wife at the young age of 47 in 1872. He remained on his land until 1891, then sold the remainder to his youngest son William. Martin then moved in with his daughter Charlotte and her husband until his death in 1894.

I was about 12 years old when mother and I went East to Belleville from out West years ago. Lil was a wonderful lady. Mum and I stayed there about 3 weeks. Lil worked so hard keeping boarders. Now John Seeley was another story?? He came out West to dad's farm (Albert Seeley) for 8 weeks. Of course they were cousins. That was in Saskatchewan - where dad farmed.

One good thing he did was to teach me how to drive my dad's new Ford car out in the fields where I didn't run into anything. I was about 11 years old then.

Ray and I were about the same age. He used to take bad spells and pass out. Of course I was always looking after him.

Then I heard Lil say he grew out of those fits, later.

You know we have a first cousin (Wilma Ward) (86 years of age at time of writing this letter)

When your grandparents (WJ and Lillie) lived near Wallbridge we visited them often, especially in melon time (I recall the extensive melon patches in this area as a very young lad). And as long as Bill's parents Harry and Edith lived they came to our place.

General Notes:

According to Wendy Seeley granddaughter of Douglas, William Douglas's father worked a night shift in the coal mines for a number of years. Her grandfather, Douglas, was pulled from school by the age of approximately eight to go with his father William to the coal mines. William would promptly settle down with a bottle of alcohol and get drunk, while the child, Douglas, would work his father's job of operating the lift getting the miners in and out of the mine.

Wendy also notes that, Douglas, and family made a few trips back to Canada to visit family in Stirling, ON. Her father, Richard remembers it well. The family claims that William never made the trip home, though his wife Emma did after William died.
